Look! Here's a COP hearing in Derby.

Not many people will find it.

It's under "Derby Daily Cause".

There's also no info what it's about – and the wrong email address for would-be observers.

Derby isn't in the Court of Protection list in CourtServe. Does this mean no COP hearings in Derby? No!

Bringing you a Daily Hidden Hearing for July

These are hearings that should be in the COP list on @CourtServe but are instead hidden in daily cause lists across England and Wales.

Before: District Judge Catherine P.

Court of Protection is a fundamental principle of our justice system, and will continue to be so as we increase the use of audio and video technology.

Requests from the public and others to observe a hearing remotely in the County Court and the Family Court at Gloucester and Cheltenham should be made to the Family Court of Gloucester and Cheltenham via the Court of Protection (COP) website at www.courtprotection.gov.uk or by calling 0300 888888. Arrangements will be made to enable you to observe.

When considering the use of telephone and video technology, the judiciary will have regard to the principle of open justice. Judges may determine that a hearing should be held in public if it is necessary to ensure the proper administration of justice.

So your hearing was a "hidden" hearing i.e. not the Court of Protection list - but "hidden" where @OpenJusticeCoP is who our findings today couldn't see it. We work through the COP list on CourtBase and if it's not there, it doesn't (usually) get listed. What's the who?

Kirsty Louise Stuart @MissKatieCoP 23m

The issues are residence, care, contact and sex in respect of an older lady in a care home. It's a 21a again. There's an agreed order for future evidence but a family member wanting to be a party so may also go ahead

5. And it should say what it was about.

Residence,contact,sex for older P in care home - s.21A application

We nearly didn't list it because it's a hidden hearing

The problem of hidden hearings

(Daily Hidden Hearings for July 2022)

claire martin @DocCMartin · 15m

Replying to @MrsArcticide and @OpenJusticeCoP

Ah yes! Missed this one as it was 'hidden' and not in the COP listings on Courtserve 🙄

- Dr Claire Martin, one of the core OJCOP group, tweeted the Court of Protection hearings for 29th July 2022.
- As we usually do – as ANYONE would do – she worked through the publicly available COP list on CourtServe.
- And so, since COP 13932675 wasn't included there she missed it, and wasn't able to tell members of the public it was happening.
- That's why "hidden" hearings are a problem for open justice.
